

Got questions about Life?
Not sure what you think?
Want to hear what other people think?

TRY ALPHA

Alpha provides an opportunity for anyone to think about the Christian faith, no question is out of bounds and you are free to discuss as much or as little as you like. It is informal, fun and friendly.

Evening course beginning September 2017!

Two very informal open sessions to find out more:

Wednesday 6th September

Redlynch Village Hall – 7pm-8.30pm

Saturday 9th September

Morgan's Vale School – 10am – 11.30am

To register your interest or to have an informal chat please contact Rev. Veronica Batchelor on 01725 513878 or batchelor446@btinternet.com or Lloyd Perry on 07500905008 or lloydperry72@hotmail.com

'I was given a very warm welcome, lots of delicious food and an open atmosphere where it was ok to question everything without judgement. Yes anything!

Ali Silver who attended the Alpha Course

Got questions about Life?

Not sure what you think?

Want to hear what other people think?

Try Alpha.

Alpha provides an opportunity for anyone to think about the Christian faith, no question is out of bounds and you are free to discuss as much or as little as you like. It is informal, fun and friendly.

Come along for a light lunch and initial Alpha session.

For further information then please contact
Rev. Veronica Batchelor on 01725 513878 or batchelor446@btinternet.com

Or to find out more just come along to:-

St. Birinus Church, Morgans Vale Road on Wednesday 7th September 12noon