

FRIDAY 5 MAY

'They were the first'

Securing Pegasus Bridge in Normandy was vital to the success of D Day. Malcolm Dean introduces this moving film, including original footage and recent interviews with surviving heroes, on the preparations and amazing operation carried out by the Gliders of the Airborne Division in the initial minutes of the Allied invasion.

In Downton Memorial Hall.

Doors open 7.15pm with film starting at 8pm
Tickets £10, to include light refreshments, on sale in the Borough Café.

Licensed Bar available.

In aid of Downton
Moot